Attainment of said goals and objectives will be part of an annual evaluation of the Town Administrator. The Town shall provide the Town Administrator with a laptop computer and other electronic devices approved by the Board for her to use to perform her duties. - A. If there is just cause to suspend without pay or dismiss the Town Administrator, the Board can do so after notice to the Town Administrator and a hearing. For the purposes of this Agreement, "just cause" shall mean the existence of a reasonable basis for the Board's dissatisfaction with the Town Administrator, including without limitation for poor performance, lack of capacity or diligence, failure to conform to usual standards of conduct, or other culpable or inappropriate behavior that diminishes the Town Administrator's effectiveness in the position. A suspension without pay for just cause will suspend the Town's obligations under the Agreement for the term of the suspension. - B. In addition to its rights set forth in "A", the Board can end the Town's obligations under this Agreement and the employment of the Town Administrator during the term of the Agreement, or any holdover period, by paying the Town Administrator severance of six (6) months' salary either in a lump sum or in the same increments as the Town Administrator receives her regular pay, or any combination thereof. At the Board's option, the severance payment can be paid in whole or part by relieving the Town Administrator of her duties during the term of the Agreement and paying the severance for the remainder of the term. This section shall survive the termination of this Agreement, except that the Town will not be obligated to pay severance pay if the Town complies with its obligations under the Non-Renewal article set forth below.
- C. The Town Administrator may end her obligations under this Agreement with three (3) months written notice if the notice comes after completion of the Annual Town Meeting and before the beginning of the next fiscal year. Otherwise, the Town Administrator will give six (6) months' notice to the Board.
