Administrative:

- Mixed-Use Overlay District meeting. The Planning Board is developing a new section of the zoning bylaws to encourage mixed-use development in Medfield's downtown. This initiative is designed to support a vibrant, walkable district by allowing a thoughtful blend of residential and commercial uses. In addition to enabling mixed-use projects, the bylaw will include clear regulations for responsible infill development, ensuring that growth contributes positively to the town's character, strengthens the local economy, and enhances the pedestrian experience in the downtown.
